Employees in the Government Press.

272. Mr. J. John Kattakayam : Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) whether the employees of the Government Press, excepting about 60, consisting of more than 100 permanent employees and more than 300 non-permanent employees, including compositors and binders, get any leave other than the 14 days' casual leave ;

(b) whether the employees who are entitled to get pension in future have put in complaints to the authorities concerned praying that leave should be granted to them ;

(c) the order passed on the said complaints ; and

(d) whether the $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. allowance was stopped as per retrenchment scheme ?

Rao Sahib Dr. N. Kunjan Pillai : (a) The employees in the Government Press are of two classes, salaried men (138) and permanent piece-workers (188). The permanent piece-workers are again divided into two classes, i. e,

(1) those who had been on the salaried staff till 1090 and were converted into piece-workers in that year ; and

(2) those recruited since 1090.

While the former enjoy all kinds of leave allowances, the latter are eligible only for 14 days' casual leave in the year.

(b) Yes

(c) The memorials are under consideration.

(d) Yes.
